No. 3—"In the Path of Death"

THE Riddle Rider rescues Nan from the wreckage. He is blamed for the explosion by Sarles, but the latter casts suspicion on Nan, whose spur has been found in the debris. Archer and Sarles plot to break Nan by running her cattle and rendering them unfit for sale.

Nan, learning of Archer's insinuations, goes to his saloon and confronts him. A free-for-all fight starts and Nan's life, endangered in the fracas, is saved by the timely arrival of the Riddle Rider, who escapes with her. Later, while rounding up her cattle that has been stampeded by Sarles' men, she is pulled from her horse and dragged along the ground by a maddened steer.
